

The Wetlands Section met with TxDot and FHWA in Dallas on October 18, 2011, to discuss the U.S. Highway 181 Harbor Bridge project located in Corpus Christi, Texas. Our concerns included the alternatives that were being discussed. We discussed how wetlands and waters of the U.S. would be affected by the preferred alternative. The draft DEIS is due in 2013. We will review and comment.